

Self Notes - Week1

Introduction to Probability

Important Notes:

1.

Extra Notes:

1.

Paragraph for more explanation or useful links:

- why single variable which is measuring the variable is useful - we don't want a bunch of numbers because that will be very hard to compare things. Ultimately, we want a single number because later we gonna use statistical distribution and the single number means to figuring out the probability of using those distributions will